

A camera lens with a bokeh effect in the background. The lens is centered and slightly out of focus, creating a soft, circular bokeh pattern with various colors like green, blue, and purple. The background is dark, making the lens and bokeh stand out.

Digital Media Photo Album

"FIELD OF DREAMS"

The Rays are the only team in the league to have a stadium named after a movie. The Rays are the only team in the league to have a stadium named after a movie. The Rays are the only team in the league to have a stadium named after a movie.

Bob Ross

Bob Ross, nicknamed "The Gentle Giant," was born Robert Stephen Ross in Daytona Beach, on October 26, 1916. He was raised in Oklawaha, Florida, after dropping out of school in the ninth grade. Ross moved to the U.S. Air Force. During his service, he took the time to paint landscapes as an avocation. He was a member of the United States Coast Guard. When that job ended, he was "hired" as a painter and began painting during his spare time as a painting instructor for the Air Force. Ross introduced nature and a peaceful world to his students. He was the developer of "wet on wet" paint technique, where all colors are applied directly on top of one another to produce a single color. The key of painting was painting "loosely" and "happy."

As his fame grew, Ross taught not only to paint friends and colleagues but in the early 1970s, he was given the job of an FBI agent on the telephone. Ross introduced a painting program, "The Joy of Painting," in 1972 or 1973, which is still one of the most popular TV shows among millions of viewers. In a TV painting instruction, Ross became famous for his light hearted and gentle demeanor, as well as his ability to complete a painting in 30 minutes. The key of painting was to paint "loosely" and "happy." Ross TV shows opening with a simple that would include a picture, some words, or a quote, and would tell the viewer to paint.

The key of painting was to paint "loosely" and "happy." Ross TV shows opening with a simple that would include a picture, some words, or a quote, and would tell the viewer to paint. Ross TV shows opening with a simple that would include a picture, some words, or a quote, and would tell the viewer to paint.

"The way you make yourself feel better is by painting."

Savannah College of Art and Design

ADDITIONAL SEATING
UPSTAIRS

NIGHT
OW
JIMMY
ALLO

NIGHT'S
E NIGHT

TODAY

FIRSTCOAST
NEWS  abc

Good Morning Jacksonville

NIGHTLY NEWS

FIRSTCOAST
NEWS  abc

These images were taken during the 2019-2020 school year (before COVID) during:

- classroom activities
- field trips to
  - Leonard's
  - Savannah College of Arts & Design (18-19 school year)
  - Florida State University
  - Full Sail University Mobile tour
  - First Coast News